

National do not call list should be adopted. Non-profit and political organizations should have same guidelines as for-profit organizations. We should be able to get on the do not call list through the internet not just a mailed letter.